Light Therapy (Red and Blue)

Light Therapy, also known as photorejuvenation, has been shown through years of research to increase ATP synthesis accelerating cellular metabolism and collagen production resulting in smoother and softer skin. The unique combination of power and multiple wavelengths delivers optimal results without prolonged treatment times.

Red Light Therapy is beneficial for the following:

- Enhanced local circulation
- Reduced Puffiness
- Smoothing and brightening of complexion including lessening of hyperpigmentation, reduction in appearance of fine lines and wrinkles
- Diminution in appearance of spider veins

Blue Light Therapy is beneficial for the following:

- Acne
- Blemishes
